FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

"The Way We Worked" Community Photo Contest

Pinecrest, Fla. – Pinecrest is holding a community photo contest leading up to the opening of the Smithsonian photo exhibit, "The Way We Worked" in September.

Snap a photograph of someone hard at work in the community. The top five photos will be on display at the Pinecrest Gardens' Gallery throughout the duration of the exhibit - September 5th through October 17th.

The deadline for photos is August 26th. The contest is open to all ages and abilities. Send high-resolution photos with photographer name and a brief photo description to ltoy@pinecrest-fl.gov. To be part of the online gallery via social media post your photos with the hashtag #TWWWPinecrest.

"The Way We Were" explores how work became such a central element in American culture by tracing the many changes that affected the workforce and work environments over the past 150 years. The exhibition draws from the National Archives' rich collections to tell this compelling story.
