FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Homeowner reportedly walks in on burglars who smashed sliding glass door to enter house

Pinecrest, FL – A homeowner reportedly walked in on two burglars who broke into his house in the 13300 block of Southwest 83 Court by smashing a master bedroom sliding glass door at 11:07 a.m. September 3.

Police arrived to the scene within two minutes and set up a perimeter. Nineteen police personnel who were aided by county K-9 and aviation canvassed the surrounding area to no avail.

The homeowner told police that one of the men fled the house into a waiting red or burgundy newer model Nissan Altima. The vehicle fled south toward 136 Street. The second man fled barefoot westbound on Southwest 133 Street toward Southwest 84 Avenue. The homeowner chased the man but lost sight of him.

The burglars reportedly got away with a Michael Kors women's watch valued at $350, and left behind pillows cases taken from the homeowner's bed with jewelry and tablets. A handgun that was taken from a secured lockbox belonging to the homeowner was also left behind.

The two burglars were described by the homeowner as black males in their 20s.

Anyone who has information on this case should call Crime Stoppers at 305 471-8477.
