FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Police are looking for a man who reportedly pick pocketed an elderly person

Pinecrest, FL – Pinecrest Police are looking to identify a man who reportedly pick pocketed a 94 year old man in a Publix at 13401 Pinecrest Parkway (US 1) on Tuesday, December 29 at about 2:40 p.m.

The subject was following the victim while in the store, and bumped the victim's lower back when he bent down to grab a few cans of cat food. The subject used a black jacket to conceal the theft of a wallet, which had $65. The victim noticed his wallet and money were missing from his pant back pocket when he was going to pay for the cat food.

The person police are looking for is a black male in his 50s, 5'7" to 5'9", and weighs 165 to 175 pounds. He was wearing white pants, a white long sleeve shirt, green neon colored sneakers, a yellow neon colored vinyl backpack, glasses and a flat cap.

The subject was captured on the store's security cameras following the man down an aisle. Photos of subject and police report are attached. Surveillance video is available upon request.
